Dutch investment fund NBZ is backing the tanker market to improve as it works on more vessel purchases. The Amsterdam-listed operation revealed it had sold the 11,300-dwt product carrier Caribe Ilse (built 2006) in the first quarter for an undisclosed price. The vessel has been renamed HN 2, but the buyer is not known. VesselsValue assesses the ship as worth $5m.

Het volledige bericht kunt u hier downloaden.